GREENEVILLE
At a meeting of the boys of St. Mary's parish Wednesday evening, the church plans were made to form a boy scout troop. The leader, Lieut. James Walsh was in the U. S. army during the war. He has sent to the headquarters for official papers which are expected next week when several of the boys will take the tenderfoot examinations. Plans were made to form a football team that will challenge one of the teams between the ages of 15 and 17.
The Norwich N. E. S. W. club held a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George E. Stevens, 122 Prospect street. Necessary business was transacted and refreshments were served by the hostess.
Miss Leora Beetham, while coming home from work at the U. S. Electric Co. Tuesday evening tried to jump over the ditch that the workmen are digging on North Main street. She missed her step and fell into the ditch, receiving a bad cut over her eye. She was taken to Bray's drug store where her cut was dressed by Dr. Paul Gadie.
James McIntyre of New York, formerly of Greenville, left for Florida and Cuba Monday of this week.
R. B. Ladd of Greenville has moved his family to Preston. Mr. Ladd is a lineman for the Shore Line Electric Co.
John Peckham of Preston City was a caller in the village Wednesday.
Charles Young who has been practicing law in Boston is at his home on Fourth street for a short stay.
Mrs. Verena Murphy of Woodmont has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Louis O. Potter of Central avenue.
Edward Maloney, for the past two years a newsboy for William Bowen, resigned his position Wednesday.

TAFTVILLE
A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening, Nov. 15, at 6.30 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hermann F. Berger of Jordan Lane, Wethersfield, Conn., when their daughter, Hermina Clara, and Christian Bayreuther, Jr., of Taftville and Norwich were united in marriage by Rev. O. E. Heydenreich of Hartford. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attired in white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a white boutonniere. The bridesmaid, Miss Mamie Lettler of Hartford, was dressed in pink georgette and satin and carried pink opheelia roses. The niece of the bride, Miss Marion G. Gilde, was flower girl and carried a basket of violets. The best man was Francis H. Gilde. The wedding march was played by E. Dickerson of Wethersfield and at the end of the ceremony Mrs. F. H. Gilde sang "Oh Promise Me" to which Miss M. Lettler accompanied. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Bayreuther left for a wedding trip to Boston and will be at home at Jordan Lane, Wethersfield, Conn., after January first. Among many beautiful gifts received was a large chest of silver from the associates of the bride at the Factory Insurance Association. Guests were present from New York, Norwich, South Manchester, Hartford and Wethersfield.
The annual smoker and chowder of the Taftville Pinocchio club was held on Thursday evening in the Naturalization hall with nearly the full membership of the club present. One of the best chowders in the history of the club was served and was thoroughly

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES
If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting tired of hearing and fear catarrhal deafness, go to your druggist and get one ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it a pint of honey, a little lemon juice and a little sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.
This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, ventilation become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has catarrhal trouble of the ears, is tired of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

WARNS AGAINST WILES OF THE DEVIL
Don't Try to Hide Pimples

He loves order. The devil hates it. He is a master manipulator. Look how it is in the home. There is nobody can disarrange a home and separate husband and wife and take a young boy and send him down the line like the devil.
Look how it is in politics. Put a weak man in a strong man's place and you can ruin empires.
Look how it is in the churches, when the disarrangement creeps in, when we think more of the singing than we do of praising God, when we think more of the stained glass windows and the architecture than we do of the Christ that we ought to worship, when we hear preachers think more of the effect of our sermons than we do of God's truth that we ought to be preaching.
I think it is disarrangement when you have to have a supper to run your church's financial program. The man who won't give 50 cents to God, but out being fed for it is not much of a Christian. When you have to have a supper to pay the pastor's salary, it is disarrangement. There are some churches that could name that night to have a stained glass window with a chicken in the center, or an ovary, and it wouldn't be a bad idea if we had special prayers for the chickens and the oysters, and a special day set apart in our saints' calendar, for they have built more churches and renovated more churches than anything else I know of. You show me a church that runs her financial policy on huzzars and suppers and I will give you a disarranged church. Do you think I would insult my mother by giving her a present that had bought with the money that had been raised by a few friends coming into my home and paying for a supper that I prepared? No, I wouldn't insult God that way, either.
Now let me say one word to you about pimples. No man is any better than his thoughts. These are the logical conclusions of his thoughts. If a man has dirty thoughts, he is a dirty man. I have heard some of you men swear on the streets as though they had been to hell for their education and had the very devil himself for their professor. They have got the language of the pit off so perfectly. You can always tell what kind of wheels a fellow has in his head by the spokes that come out of his mouth.
The foundation for a good character is reverence for God, and when a man can so far forget himself as to damn and blaspheme the name of the God who gave him life and who allows him to walk on His earth and breathe His air, then I wouldn't trust such a man in my home for five miles. He is also for any crime on the calendar. If there is anything that shows a man's low-down, wicked, rotten character, it is to hear him curse in the name of Jesus Christ.

COMMITTEE WILL TRY TO SOLVE TROLLEY PROBLEM
George B. Chandler, secretary of the Connecticut Chamber of Commerce, in commenting on the recently appointed trolley committee of the state chamber, said that the committee had not begun active work, but would go to work immediately after the annual meeting of the state chamber at New Haven.
"Several inquiries have come to me," said Mr. Chandler, "regarding what had been done. The persons asking about the matter clearly misunderstood the nature of this committee. It is not formed for purposes of protest against what the trolley company has done regarding fares, or for any immediate purpose. If we are to save our trolleys in Connecticut, it must be by a branch of the committee."
"Neither protests by civic bodies, action by city councils or even decisions by the public utilities commission, can permanently heal the present situation. It is proposed to conduct a dispassionate, judicial investigation; to ascertain the facts that revealed in the form of a referendum to the membership of the state chamber; to have thereon a committee of the best of the best thing to do, and when these conclusions have been reached, to start a campaign of education to persuade the people and the general assembly to that end."
The committee is composed of the following members:
Arthur M. Waitt of Sharon, chairman, consulting engineer, dirt road, in New York, chairman of committee on roads, rivers and bridges in 1917 general assembly; Morgan B. Brainard of Hartford, vice president Aetna Life Insurance Co., one of the trustees of the Connecticut company; George T. Kimball of New Britain, secretary of American Hardware Corporation; John B. Milliken of Stamford, treasurer Yale and Yale University; John W. Orsburn of New Haven, secretary of State Federation of Labor; Robert W. Perkins of Norwich, president Shore Line Electric Railway Co.; Lucius E. Stevens of Union, lawyer in area where Shore Line Electric Railway operates.

TEMPERANCE UNION VOTES TO HELP COLLECTOR WALSH
"If the Connecticut Temperance union wants to appoint a committee to co-operate with the prohibition enforcement officer in this state, who happens to be myself, I will be glad to review any information that that committee or any other committee will present at this office; that's what we're here for, to see to it that the prohibition enforcement law is obeyed." Collector James J. Walsh of the United States Internal Revenue department said Thursday at Hartford. The collector added that the office would be in a position to do more effective work when the national prohibition law became a law, January 18. His office, he said, was doing all it could do at the present time under the enforcement law, which is not nearly so rigid as the national prohibition law, which does not take effect

A Home Treatment for Asthma
Makes Breathing Easy
A Worcester, Mass., doctor has suggested the following simple, harmless and inexpensive home treatment for bronchial asthma, chronic bronchitis and coughs and colds which threaten to affect the lungs:
At bed or on going to bed, or any reliable druggist, get a bottle of Oxidase (essential oil) tablets and slowly dissolve one tablet in mouth at regular intervals. Though harmless and pleasant, they are so powerful in their action that even in stubborn cases relief often comes in just a few minutes.
Many users who for years have been obliged to sit up in bed gasping for breath and unable to sleep, report that they now take an Oxidase tablet when going to bed and can then lie down and breathe easily and naturally and get a good night's restful sleep.
Druggists are selling Oxidase tablets on a positive guarantee to refund the full purchase price of the medicine if it fails to give prompt relief in any case of bronchial coughs or asthma.

remembrances from friends in Norwich, Meriden and Hartford, Washington, D. C., Burlington, and other Vermont towns.
Father McKenna came to Norwich in the hope of gaining relief from a throat trouble by avoiding the severity of the Vermont winter, and served as curate during the pastorate of the late Rev. P. F. Shanahan and Rev. Peter M. Kennedy. After several years he returned to Vermont, where his parishioners number many French and Italian Catholics, who appreciate his able sermons in their native tongue. His kindly and agreeable ways, as well as his devotion to the duties of his calling while in Norwich, caused him to be remembered by the local parishioners, who will add their felicitations to those of his Vermont flock on his attainment of his silver anniversary in Barre.
